Thirty-seven of the children were reported present, every Sunday in April. The orchestral music was under the direction of Henry Stop-sack.

Lecture on Mexico.

The auditorium of the North Carolina Avenue Methodist Protestant Church, corner North Carolina Avenue and Eighth Street southeast, was filled with the members and guests of the Capitol Hill Literary Society, at its meeting last Monday evening.

A departure from the usual program was made. A lecture, entitled "Mexico; the Country and its People," illustrated by stereopticon views, was given by Charles F. Warren. The lecturer gave an interesting account of his observations and experiences during several trips through Mexico. The views were of unusual beauty and interest. At the close of the lecture the club tendered a unanimous vote of thanks to Mr. Warren.

Tell Short Stories.

The Short Story Club met last Tuesday evening at the Riggs House, with the president, Capt. Arthur Portman, in the chair. The opening number of the program was a soprano solo by Miss Edna Baier, "Dear Heart," and a recital, "The Woodpecker;" Mrs. E. Maynicke Stillman followed with a paper entitled, "American Women as Newspaper Editors in the Past;" a piano solo, "Norma," by Mrs. Ellen Vockey Seifert; F. E. JUSTICE PRITCHARD BEGINS WORK TOMORROW

Has Been Assigned to Criminal Court No. 1, According to Custom.

The Hon. Jeter C. Pritchard, who on Friday took the oath of office as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the District, will enter upon the discharge of his judicial duty tomorrow morning. He has been assigned to preside in Criminal Court No. 1. This is in accord with the custom long followed in the assignment of new members of the District Supreme Court bench. The only exception to this rule in many years was made when Justice Barnard entered upon his judicial duties. He was assigned to preside in Equity Court No. 2.

Justice Anderson, who for a long time has presided in Criminal Court No. 1, will occupy a seat on the bench tomorrow with the new justice. This is in keeping with another long-established custom of the court. On Wednesday and Thursday Mr. Pritchard was on the bench with Justice Anderson, noting the method of practice and procedure in criminal cases. Judging from the reputation as a lawyer with which Justice Pritchard enters upon his official duties, there is no fear among the members of the local bar that he will need much coaching.

Justice Anderson, who vacates the bench in Criminal Court No. 1, will preside in Criminal Court No. 2. Unless there is a great rush of criminal business in the District Attorney's office it is seldom that persons under indictment are called to trial in that branch of the court. The time of the presiding justice is fully taken up in hearing suits which come up on appeal from justice of the peace courts and other civil business certified from the circuit division of the Supreme Court of the District.

There will be no other change made in the assignment of the justices until after the successor to Justice Hagner is named. The latter will retire from the bench at the end of the present month.

POLICE FOR THE LIBRARY.

At the request of Bernard Green, Superintendent of the Library of Congress, W. O. Messner and W. J. Leonard have been appointed additional privates of the Police Department, for duty in the Library and about the grounds.

OBSERVANCE OF FLAG DAY.

Commissioner Macfarland says he will recommend to his associates the issuing of a proclamation directing the observance of Flag Day this year to be held on June 15, as June 14 fall on Sunday.

Harry Hanlein sang "Easy," a coon song of his own composition. Helen Hunter recited a humorous selection, and Olie Farr and Hattie Paxton sang a duet. A piano solo by John Fuller followed. William Briggs, president of the National Union senate, made an address. Leonard Nachman entertained the audience with funny stories. A duet by Nellie Newton and Lena Woodruff called forth an enthusiastic encore, as did also a solo by Mabel Trazarre, accompanied by Olive Keyes on the piano. A piano solo by Mabel Nachman and a fifteen-minute skit, "A Lesson in Acting," by Frances Burke and Charles Beckley, ended the program. Every number was received with hearty applause.

James E. Bright, president of the cabinet of the District of Columbia National Union, closed the evening with a happy address. Refreshments were served.

Henry Wilson Post, G. A. R.

The eleventh anniversary of the Henry Wilson Post, No. 17, G. A. R., will be celebrated tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m., at Soldiers' Home. A program of songs, recitations, and speeches has been arranged.

Washington Heights Republic.

The Washington Heights Republic gave a public reception to its members and friends last evening at 7:30 when the army canteen was the subject of discussion.

Speeches were made in favor of the canteen by Messrs. Moses, Kelta, and Green, against Martin, North and Arundell. The vote stood 49 against, 28 for. Chairman Reeves presided. The house was crowded. Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes sang two solos, a duet by Messrs. Mooney and Nolan, and solo by William M. Mooney, instrumental music by Miss and Messrs. Gathman. After the meeting delicious refreshments were served, and everybody went home feeling pleased with the show the Republic had made. With high praises for the conduct of the young men and their great work.

Maine Society Meeting.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Maine Society was held in the parlors of the society at 522 Sixth Street northwest last night, the president, Dr. Patten, presiding. A full attendance of the society was present. After the customary business meeting a literary and musical program was given. At the business portion of the meeting reports were read from various officers and a time chosen for the closing meeting of the season which will be Saturday, May 16. It was also decided to give an excursion in June to Great Falls.

Following the business session the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Dr. Patten who had charge of the social portion of the meeting. The program consisted of the following numbers: Piano solo, Bessie Oliphant; vocal duet, Mrs. Mabel and Charles Wells; Willie Peterson gave three selections of his own composition, "Salute to the Flag," "The Falling Leaf," and his most recent piece, "A Summer Girl;" a trio of two mandolins and piano, Miss Brown, Mr. Noel, and Miss Lynch; piano solo, Bessie Maxwell; paper on "Picturesque Maine" by Mrs. Dr. Patten; recitation, Louise Sage.

EIGHT CLERKS SUCCUMB TO BAD VENTILATION

Thirty Others in Chicago Treasurer's Office Are Ill.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Four more clerks in the office of County Treasurer Harnberg died yesterday, bringing the total up to eight that have succumbed to the long hours and bad ventilation in the course of the rush in tax payments. Thirty clerks are sick at home and several are expected to die.

The high pressure is now yet over, for in the treasurer's vaults between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 received by mail is yet to be checked and receipted for. Panic has seized the remaining clerks.

At the clearing hour last night Assistant Treasurer Schmidt gave out the following list of those who had died during the day:

George Newhouse, John F. Coughlan, George Rockefeller, Walter Maher, Michael Hoy, J. Brysh, and W. H. Schumacher were said to be at the point of death.

MAJOR TWEEDALE READ BEFORE ENDEAVORERS

Longfellow's "Courtship of Miles Standish" Presented.

The auditorium of the First Congregational Church was filled Friday night with members and friends of the Christian Endeavor societies of Calvary Baptist and the First Congregational churches, who heard Longfellow's "The Courtship of Miles Standish" eloquently read by Major John Tweedale, of the United States Army.

The Rev. Dr. S. M. Newman, pastor of the First Congregational Church, in presenting Major Tweedale, gave a short introductory address on the poet and the poem.

The reading was illustrated throughout with many the stereopticon views, the groupings for which were taken in this city from life, under the direction of Charles E. Fairman, especially for the presentation last night.

Dr. J. W. Bischoff accompanied the reading with music specially arranged by himself.

The pleasing feature of the entertainment, and one generally commented upon, was the harmonious blending of the simultaneous reading, illustrations, and music, which gave an artistic expression to the thought and action of this American classic.
